

STUDENT VOICE IN ACTION: PREPARING TO PARTNER

STEP 1: Consider the Situation	Step 2: Consider the Solutions	Step 3: Use Your Voice to bring the issue/solutions to the table	Step 4: Follow Up for Fidelity
Guiding Questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. What is the situation? 2. Why is a solution needed? 3. Who will benefit from a solution? 	Guiding Questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Are the solutions realistic? 2. Do the solutions take everyone's needs into account? Do they benefit the good of the whole? 3. How do you know that you are not creating noise? What might noise in this situation look like? 4. How will these solutions be executed? 5. Is everyone ready and willing to take responsibility for the action plan? 6. Who will follow up and ensure fidelity? 7. What is "Plan B"? 	Guiding Questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Who will you tell? 2. When will you tell them? 3. Are you prepared to be flexible and make possible changes during the conversation? This is a partnership! 	Guiding Questions: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Has the situation been resolved? 2. Did everyone take responsibility for their role in the solution? 3. What next steps are needed?

STUDENT VOICE IN ACTION: PREPARING TO PARTNER

A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for students to write their notes for Step 1.A large, empty rectangular box with a black border, intended for students to write their notes for Step 2.

STUDENT VOICE IN ACTION: PREPARING TO PARTNER

